

Finger Lakes Children's Environmental Health Center Project ECHO

Mar 2019- Oct 2020

Since beginning FLCEHC Project ECHO in March 2019 we have hosted 16 sessions on the following topics:

NYSCEHC Year 2

- Lead in Pregnancy and Lactation
- Asthma Triggers and the Environment
- Unintended Consequences –Accidental Opioid Exposures in Kids
- Breastmilk and Breastfeeding: Mold and Environmental Contaminants
- New Environments for New Americans
- Perinatal Dental Disease and Child Health
- Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) - Impact of a Toxic Environment

NYSCEHC Year 3

- Dangerous Jobs -

Hub Team, 83 people have joined m joined 3 or more sessions.

Each session offered 1 hour of Continuing Medical Education credit. Fifty with a total 114 hours of CME submitted for approval.

We have reached people in a wide variety of roles including: NYSCEHC ne pediatric, family practice, and FOHC providers and staff; local health depa sanitarians; school and Head Start nurses; medical trainees; insurance co and community agencies (Nurse-Family Partnership, Cornell Cooperative Participants attended from at least 27 New York counties (21 counties in

Attendees have shared over 50 topics of interest for future sessions, and these topics received 3 or more requests:

- Lead (in water; strategies to increase screening rates; more!)
- Vaping; and its effect on air quality
- Environmental Justice/Racism