

Raising Children with Developmental Disabilities

“If you want to go quickly, go alone. If you want to go far, go together”

Panel

Licensed Psychologist
Assistant Professor of
Pediatrics at UPMC

Developmental Behavioral
Pediatrics Administrator
Parent to a young adult with ASD

Licensed Psychologist
Associate Professor of
Pediatrics at UPMC

Family Navigator, Developmental
Behavioral Pediatrics at UPMC
Parent to a young adult with ASD

Licensed Psychologist
Associate Professor of
Pediatrics at UPMC

Parent to a young child with ASD

When you are new to the world of developmental disabilities and don't know where to start, how do you build partnerships and collaborations that are going to help families/you through this new journey?

What are indicators of a successful/ideal partnership or collaboration?

What are indicators of a successful/ideal partnership or collaboration?

