

A

B

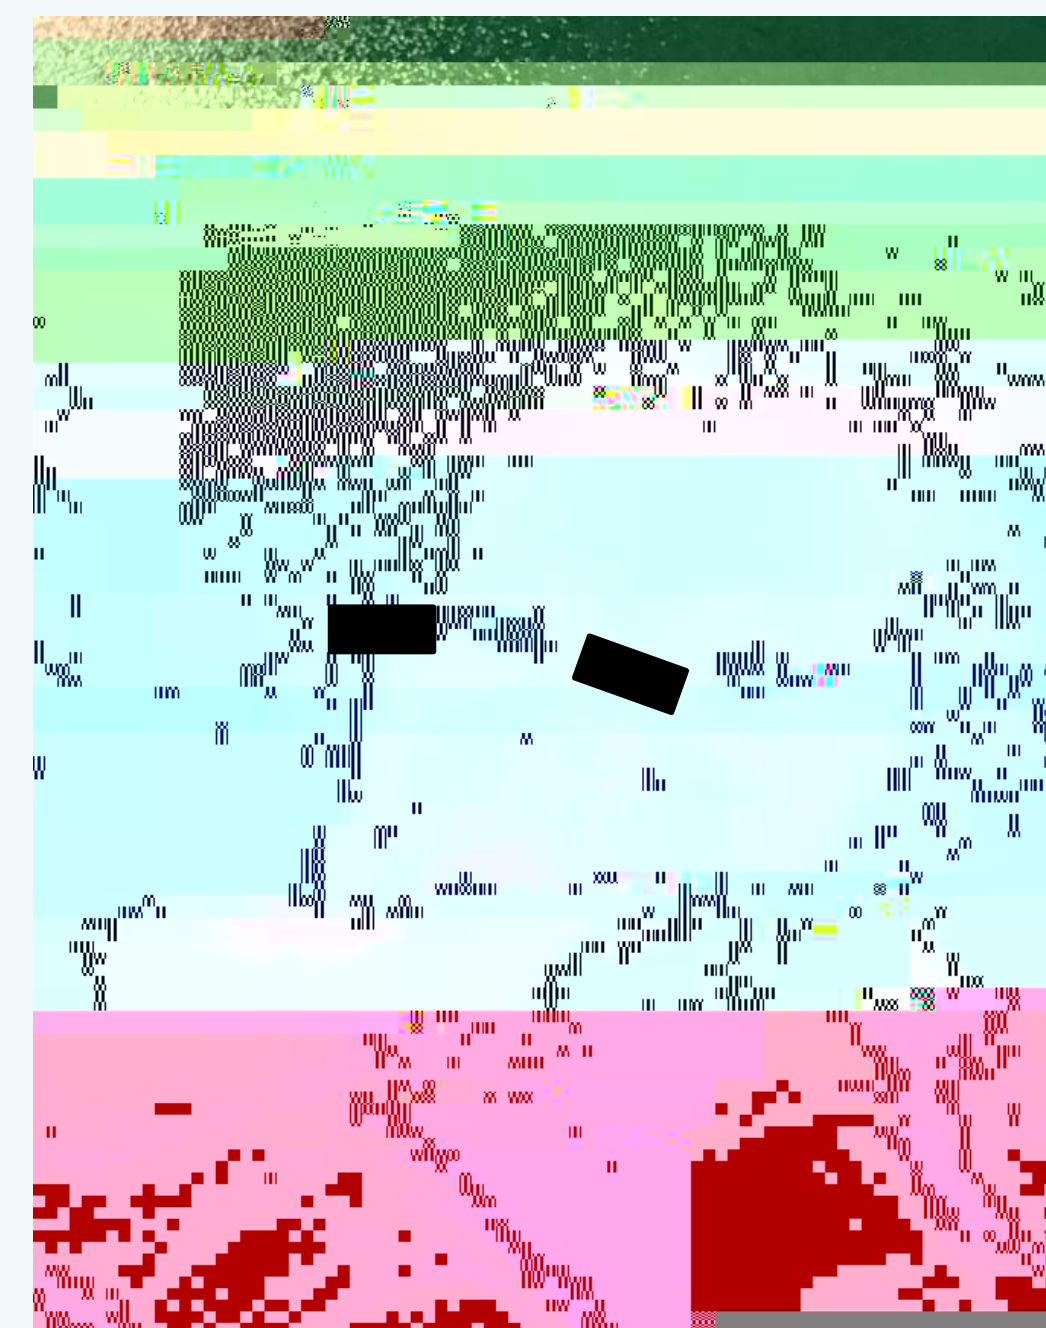

Figure 3: Childhood photos of case patient demonstrating signs of overgrowth and characteristic facies. A) Photograph of patient with an 18-month younger sibling. Patient's growth chart tracked in the 99th percentile through childhood. B) Photograph demonstrates epicanthal folds, down-slanting palpebral fissures, long philtrum, and low-set ears consistent with Weaver Syndrome.