

Describe your current position:

How did your UR experience prepare you for your current career?

What were some of your favorite things about your time at UR?

What tips do you have for public health graduate students to obtain their first job after graduation?