

Executive Leadership Process

1. UAWI led laws help IP approval political environment, and academic leadership which have increased a range of other institutional approvals for excellence in research, teaching and leadership. UAWI led laws help IP approval

1. Build a community of excellence organizational resources flow record of excellence

Targets rising women who are established experts in their domain with a track record of achievement in clinical program development for other institutional-level activities have aspirations to lead at the executive level in the next five years.