

1. Introduction

Japan has already achieved a high population served by water supply as 96.7% at total population (end of Mar. 2003). Reflecting a shift from quantitative expan-

Photo 1 Pin shoot and fillet welding vice reservoir with a capacity of 7 000 m³.

4. Summary

JFE Engineering has actively developed new membrane filtration technologies for high flux type membrane filtration systems which meet a wide range of customer demand. The company has also developed lining renovation techniques for concrete service reservoirs which conform to the needs of the times, and are expected to enjoy wide use in the future.

For Further Information on Membrane Filtration Systems, Please Contact to:

Waterworks Plant Gr., Planning Dept.,
Water and Waste Water Engineering Div.,
JFE Engineering
Phone: (81) 45-505-7779

On Lining Renovation Method for Service Reservoirs:

Gr. No. 2, Administrative Sec., Waterworks Technology Dept.,
Water and Waste Water Engineering Div.,
JFE Engineering
Phone: (81) 45-505-7890