

Approved Over the Counter Medications For use after your first trimester (after 12weeks)

If needed, you may use the following over the counter medications after your first trimester. We recommend avoiding unnecessary medication use during pregnancy. Please contact our office with any questions.

 Please note-there are many other medications that are safe to use during pregnancy. If you have further questions please discuss with our office.