Thursday, August 11

Thursday's sessions are intended for a smaller group of RCORR affiliates and colleagues so that we can have focused, local-based conversations with Paul that address the on-the-ground experiences and needs of people. There is no charge for these sessions. The bulk of the conversation would be question and answer for each. Specific questions could be submitted ahead of time to give Paul time to prepare responses. These sessions will be held at the Wilson building at RGH in Conference room C. The conference room is on the second floor.

9am – noon – Exploring the Effects of Trauma and Hardship on Refugees in Educational Settings (Session focused on Educators and Teachers)

1pm - 4– Exploring the Effects of Trauma and Hardship on Refugees in Health Care Settings (Session focused on Health Care Professionals)

6:30 – 9pm– Reflecting on the Road We Have Walked: Helping Refugee Leaders Address the Effects of Trauma and Hardship in Their Communities (This session is specifically for refugee leaders and a select group of others who work closely with leaders to discuss the complexities of this work, specific cultural manifestations of trauma that they see and strategies that leaders can utilize in their work as leaders.)

Friday, August 12

Faith & Family Workshop

What: The role of faith in overcoming domestic violence. Ms. Laretta Pierce, CEO Covenant Cookies will be the keynote speaker. Ms. Pierce is a survivor of domestic violence who credits her remarkable climb from violence and poverty to safety and prosperity to her faith in God and His profound grace. Her incredible journey and the power of her faith -- which guided her then and is the foundation of her life today -- will inspire and motivate. Ms. Pierce speaks around the world and has been featured on ABC News, TBN and more.

When: Saturday, September 17th, 2:00pm-9pm

Where: Roberts Wesleyan College Cultural Life Center, 2301 Westside Drive

More Information: Free event! Advanced registration required. Call 425-1580 for information or Register here
